

My Thirst

Eric Schragner

D D D

Allegretto

Beg par - don sir, but is an ox - cart mor ning I a - woke, and though I week I saw a man whose vis - age will I learn? they ask. How of - ten rest - ing on my head? The dirt be - neath my could - n't kneel or stand, an old man's cross - bow brought to mind a louse. Much like the lord up - must I do me harm? "It must be fif - ty cheek tells me I nev - er found the bed. It's let me know my wed - ding was at hand. I'd on whose land I rend my leak - y house. "My times, but still, a fifth might be the charm." So

D D

7

C G A

10

D D

13

not a pret - ty thing greets me on o - pen - ing my lain down with a come - ly lass much sweet - er than a friend," I cried, "I'd like a word," and in his face I then they ask what ails me, and have I lost my eyes. I liked the taste when it went down, but grape. But I'd mis - took for fla - vor what turned spit. "I don't care that there's three of you, the mind? I say, "An ale is just the thing, if

D

16

C A To Coda D Em

now it's draw - in' flies. Though last night I was out to be her shape. I'm not the last to mid - dle I can hit." I've lost my home, I've you would be so

F#m G G D

bot - tom - less, it feels now like I've burst! They all talk of my drink I loved her, and I warn't the first. She tells them of my lost two teeth, it seems that I'm ac - cursed. Now he talks of my drink - ing, but nev - er of my thirst. They all talk of my drink - ing, but drink - ing, but nev - er of my thirst. She tells them of my drink - ing, but drink - ing, but nev - er of my thirst. Now he talks of my drink - ing, but

D C A D D D

C A D D D.S. al Coda D nev er of my thirst. One thirst. When kind." Of nev - er of my thirst. Last nev - er of my

Em F#m G

all the sots they've ev - er met, they swear that I'm the e'er a trick - le I do hear, my lips are read - y I was born, they ar - gue on what sort of milk I you've a cask or vat be - ware, you might find me im -

G D D C A

worst! They all talk of my drink - ing, but nev - er of my pursed! They all talk of my drink - ing, but nev - er of my nursed! They all talk of my drink - ing, but nev - er of my mersed! Then you'll talk of my drink - ing, but nev - er of my

42 D D D D C A

1.-3. 3 3 4. 3 3

thirst. When thirst. They all talk of my drink ing, but nev er of my thirst. When thirst. If

47 D

3 3

thirst. They all talk of my

49 D C A D

3 3 3

drink ing, but nev er of my thirst!