

World Enough And Time

Eric Schragger

Andante

Bm7 Eb7

Ab

AbMaj7

There's a phrase I bor - rowed from a po - et. I

Cm7

Fm7

Fm7

Bm7

mis-tress act - ed hes - i - tant and coy. He said for-ev - er was too long to

Fm7

Bm7

Db

Eb

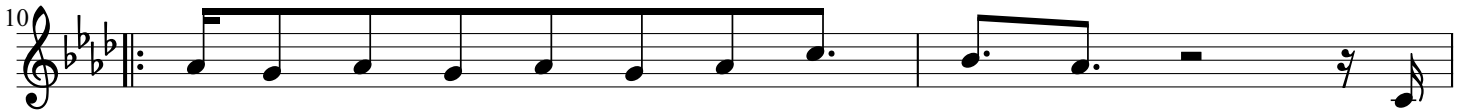

Bm7 Eb

wait for love, that life was short and meant to be en - joyed.

Ab

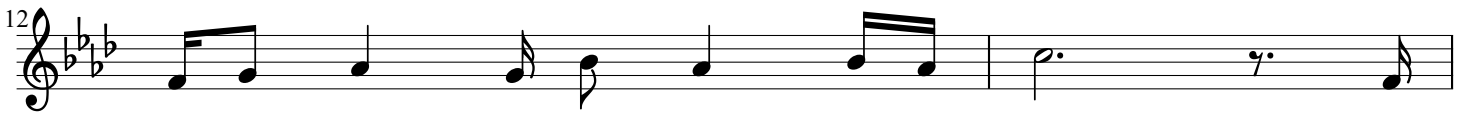

AbMaj7

When I fall in love I hav no pa - tience. I nev - er real - ly thought that I was wor - thy, that's That's what I was do - ing when you found me. You can - not wait, I'm al - ways so a - fraid. If why I al - ways need - ed so much proof. And of - fered me your smile and heal - ing hand. How

Cm7

F7

Fm7

Bm7

Fm7

Bm7

we keep mov - ing for - ward she must love me back, and so I walked a - way, and chose to be a - lone, and strange that some - one's love could surge a - head of mine, but

Bm7 Eb7

16

so I tell her what the po - et said: Had we but won - dered if I could re - write the truth... If I had this time there were some things I had learned: I said there's

Eb Ab Eb Ab

18

world e - nough and time, if world were lim - it - less and world e - nough and time, world e - nough to search, and world e - nough and time, the world is big e - nough, and world e - nough and time, be - cause my world is yours, and

Cm Fm Cm7 Fm7 Fm7 Bbm7

20

time we nev - er hur - ried, then it would be no crime,
 time e - nough to change me, I'd find a - noth - er skin,
 time is for the tak - ing. We'll take it step by step,
 time with you is price - less. If you would be my wife,

Fm7 Bbm7 Db Eb

23

love could take cen - tur - ies and I would nev - er wor - ry.
 one that could be loved, that had what I was mis - sing.
 and if the steps are slow, we might find what we're seek - ing.
 I know that I would nev - er fear the next hor - i - zon.

DbMaj7 Eb7 Ab

25

But there's not world e - nough and time,
 If there were world e - nough and time,
 Just give me world e - nough and time,
 There would be world e - nough and time,

27 AbMaj7 Cm7 To Coda

not world to keep her in, or time e-nough for all I want to world e-nough to hide, and time e-nough to learn what not to world e-nough to breathe, and time e-nough to mean all that I world e-nough to grow, and time to hear each pre-cious word you

29 F7 Db Eb

say... I try so hard to hold her, to say... I would - n't make the same mis-takes, and say... For each slow step for-ward, there'd be

31 Cm7 Fm7

rea-son and pur-suade her, but some-one would ac-cept me, I
 one or two steps back; at

32 Bbm7 Eb7 Eb7

in the end, I fright-en her a-way. I way...
 might just find a place where I could stay...
 times I ev-en thought I'd run a

35 DbMaj7 Ab

But you held me, and you for-gave me, and

37 Bbm7 Eb7 Gb Ab7

showed me that you on-ly wan-ted me. You

39 D♭Maj7 A♭

gave your heart and you gave your pa - tience, so

41 D♭Maj7 B♭m7 E♭7 D.S. al Coda F7 rit.

now I know what my next step should be... And I have say... Take

45 D♭ E♭ Cm7 F7

all the time you need to pon - der, but if you say yes... You would

47 B♭m7 E♭7 A♭Maj7

change my world, on our wed-ding day.