

Lady of the Rose

Eric Schrager

♩ = 170 G

C

What is this game that you've stumbled up - on, is it Sud - den - ly you're sit - ting next to a Queen, as you Hail the Crown Prin - cess! And now it be - gins, for you What does it mean that they call you a Queen? It means Now there's a new Queen who stands where you stood, and you've fai - ry tale or his - to - ry? Ar - mor and wea - pons and watch your man fight - ing for Crown. Talk to him brief - ly be - want to live up to that name. Don't drop the scep - tre, or end - less - ly plan - ning de - tails. All eyes are on you where - time for your - self once a - gain. Still, as a Count - ess or

G

C

G

C

Am

C

D

court - ly in - trigue... Well, per - haps you've found where you be - long.
tween ev' - ry bout to make sure that his head's in the game.
trip on the dress... You keep watch - ing to learn what to do.
ev - er you go, so be part of it! Join in the fun.
Duch - ess, you learn that things are - n't as they used to be.

G

C

Now there's a stir from the end of the hall, as the Push back your nerves, and make cer - tain to smile, you're a
Her Maj - es - ty smiles and says you're do - ing fine, for no Give re - cog - ni - tion for what peo - ple do, be the
You must still car - ry your - self like a Queen, though no

G C G

21

crowd parts be - fore her you see, Ev' - ry - one bow - ing as heart - beat a - way from re - nown. And, there it is! Yes, they two Queens are ev - er the same. On - ly be true to who wind that will fill up their sails. Cour - te - sy al - ways, the long - er the burd - en of reign. Now you must lis - ten more they greet the Queen, and she's ra - di - ant, gra - cious and strong.

C Am C D

27

 all saw the blow! And now things nev - er will be the same.
 you real - ly are, and she's cer - tain you'll find your way through.
 stan - dard is you. It seems end - less, but soon 'twill be done.
 of - ten than speak, and give com - fort when you see the need.

F G C

33

This is a role some - one asked her to play... What would that be like This is a role that you're des - tined to play, all be - cause you're the
 Is this a role that you're read - y to play? For you've no - ticed each
 This is a role that you want - ed to play, and your work, if it's
 This is a role that you'll nev - er not play, and per - haps you grow do you sup - pose? Op' - ning her pet - als to ful - lest dis - play.

D G F G

38

 wo - man he chose. Op - en your pet - als to ful - lest dis - play.
 sea - son it grows. Op - en your pet - als to ful - lest dis - play.
 good, nev - er shows. Op - en your pet - als to ful - lest dis - play.
 stiff from the pose. Op - en your pet - als to ful - lest dis - play.

C G Am C D

45

Ev' - ry - one smiles and ad - mires when they look on a rose...
 Ev' - ry - one smiles: when they look at you they see a rose...
 Ev' - ry - one smiles if they can't see the thorns on the rose...
 Ev' - ry - one smiles and ap - plauds as they hand you your rose...
 Ev' - ry - one smiles when they see a La - dy of the

51 D D7 F G

Rose... This is a role that you al - ways shall play, and you're

58 C D G F G

one of the hand - ful who knows. Op - en your pet - als to ful - lest dis - play.

66 C G Am C D D7

Ev' - ry - one smiles and ad - mires a La - dy of the Rose...

74 C G Am D G C G

rit.
Ev' - ry - one smiles and ad - mires a La - dy of the Rose.