

Homecoming

Eric Schragner

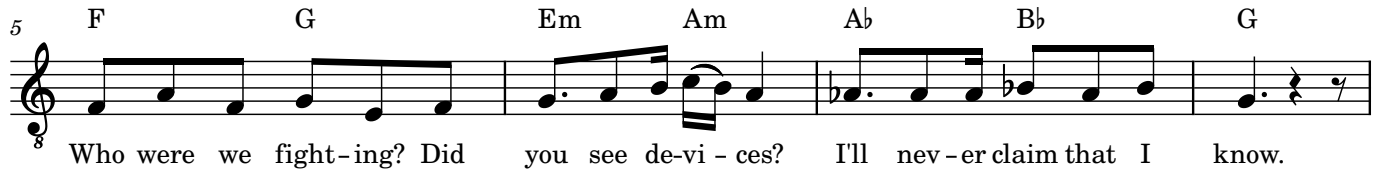

$\text{♩} = 76$

C Em Am Dm G C Am

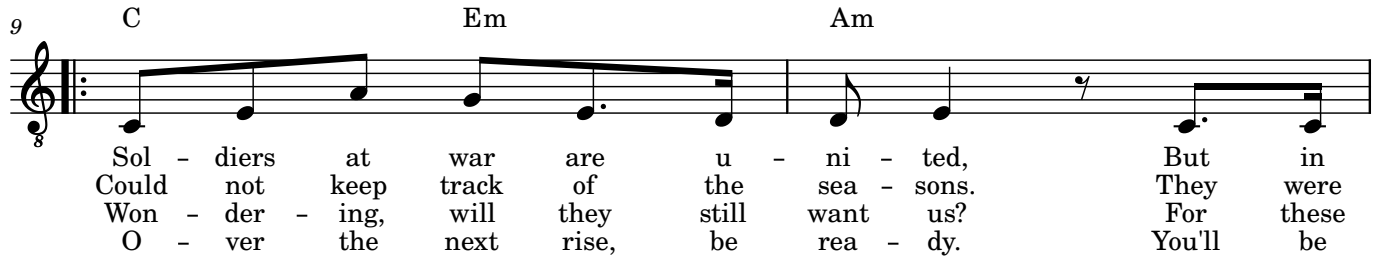

We were called up in a cri-sis, Off we went in our quest for the foe.

5 F G Em Am Ab Bb G

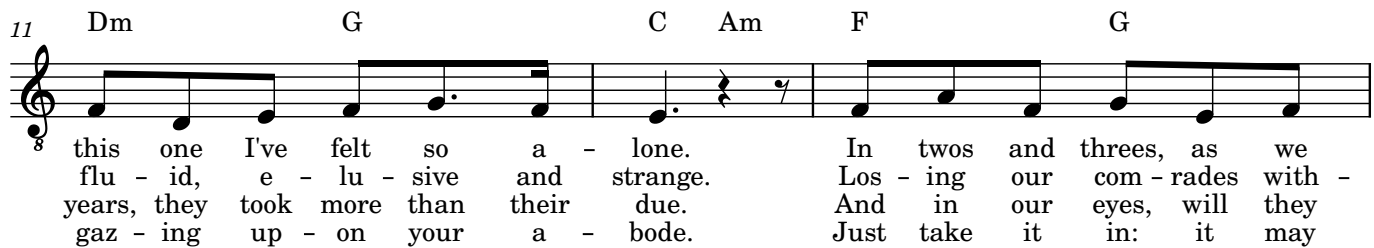

Who were we fight-ing? Did you see de-vi - ces? I'll nev - er claim that I know.

9 C Em Am

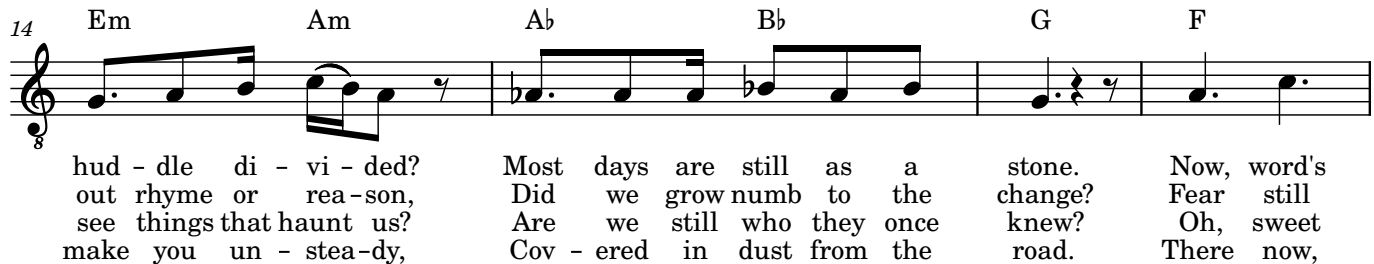

Sol - diers at war are u - ni - ted, But in Could not keep track of the sea - sons. They were Won - der - ing, will they still want us? For these O - ver the next rise, be rea - dy. You'll be

11 Dm G C Am F G

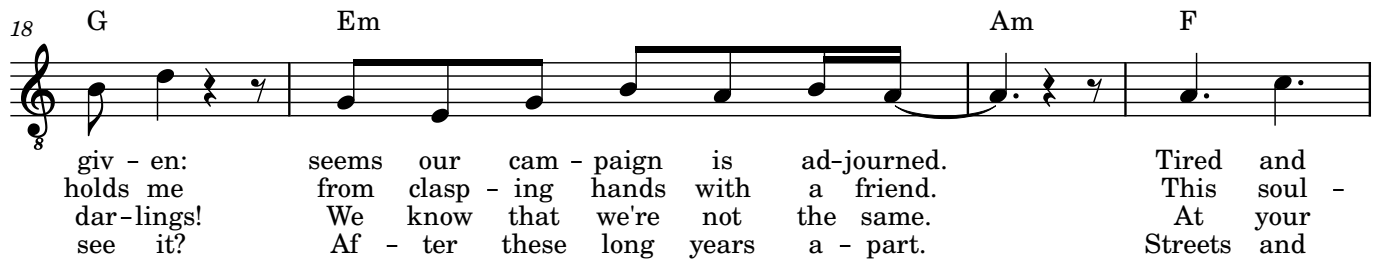

this one I've felt so a - lone. In twos and threes, as we flu - id, e - lu - sive and strange. Los - ing our com - rades with - years, they took more than their due. And in our eyes, will they gaz - ing up - on your a - bode. Just take it in: it may

14 Em Am Ab Bb G F

hud - dle di - vi - ded? Most days are still as a stone. Now, word's out rhyme or rea-son, Did we grow numb to the change? Fear still see things that haunt us? Are we still who they once knew? Oh, sweet make you un - stea-dy, Cov - ered in dust from the road. There now,

18 G Em Am F

giv - en: seems our cam - paign is ad-journed. Tired and holds me from clasp - ing hands with a friend. This soul - dar-lings! We know that we're not the same. At your see it? Af - ter these long years a - part. Streets and 2

22 G Bb G

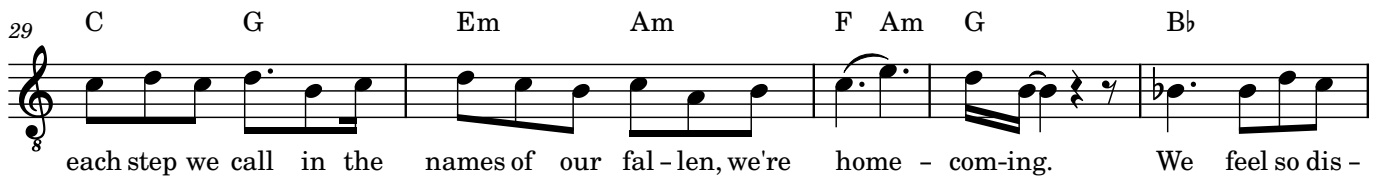

ach - ing, sick - ness, hearth-stones, val - leys, At last, we're bid to re - turn... How long will it take to mend? We're Do you still nur - ture a flame? This is a map of my heart...

25 C G Em Am F Dm G

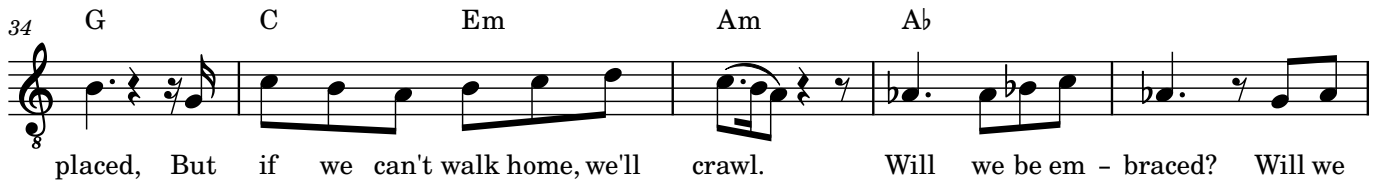

worn from our cares, now our swords are plow-shares, and we're home - com-ing. With

29 C G Em Am F Am G Bb

each step we call in the names of our fal - len, we're home - com-ing. We feel so dis - placed, But if we can't walk home, we'll crawl. Will we be em - braced? Will we

34 G C Em Am Ab

39 Eb G C G C

1.-3.

e - ven be greet - ed at all? Can we go home?

43 C Am F Dm G C

4.

home? Can we go home? Ah, yes... we're home.